

New Directions in Leukaemia Research Meeting

Abstract Guidelines and Submission Terms and Conditions

The New Directions in Leukaemia Research Meeting (NDLR), 25 - 28 March 2018 at Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre, provides the forum to showcase emerging paradigms and breakthroughs at the forefront of Leukaemia research and treatment, from the molecular basis of Leukaemia to new therapies emerging in the clinic.

Presentation Formats

When completing an abstract submission form, you may indicate your preferred presentation format by selecting 'oral', 'poster' or 'either'. Your preferred presentation format will be considered but not guaranteed. The NDLR Program Review Committee will assess all abstract submissions and allocate the presentation format deemed most suited to the topic and Program.

Oral Presentations

Oral Presentations will take place from Sunday 25 March to Wednesday 28 March during Conference sessions with the appropriate research theme. The presentation format and duration will vary and guidelines will be made available to successful authors at a later date.

Poster Presentations

Some abstract authors selected for poster presentation may be asked to participate in a Poster Preview session, providing a two minute oral summary of their poster.

Critical Dates

Abstract Submissions Close	27 November 2017
Author Notifications	5 January 2018
Author Conference Registrations Close	2 February 2018

Abstract Submission Terms & Conditions

By submitting an abstract, you agree to the following:

- At least one author will register to attend and present at the Meeting.
- All authors whose abstracts have been accepted and who are presenting at the Meeting are responsible for all costs including registration, travel, accommodation, any costs associated with preparation and/or presentation of the abstract, or any other costs associated with attendance at the Meeting.
- All authors whose abstracts have been accepted and are presenting, must register for the Meeting by 2 February 2018.
- If your abstract submission is accepted, you give NDLR permission to publish your abstract and related presentation materials and/or poster on the NDLR website and in the Meeting Program.
- You confirm that the abstract submission has been approved by all authors.
- The number of abstract submissions is not limited.

Abstract Submission Requirements and Guidelines

Please comply with the Abstract Guidelines and use the Abstract Template. Any abstract that does not comply with these specifications will not be accepted for review.

Abstract Format Requirements

- Use the abstract submission template.
- Your abstract must be written in English.
- Maximum word count is 300 words.
- Do not include references in your abstract text.
- When using abbreviations spell out the name in full at the first mention and follow with the abbreviation in parenthesis.

Online Abstract Submission Guidelines

- Click here to commence your submission.
- Abstract submissions will only be accepted via the Meeting website <http://ndlr2018.com/>. Abstracts will not be accepted via fax, email or post.
- You will be asked to create an author account for abstract submissions. Please remember your password in case you need to make changes to your submission.
- Enter your paper title in the 'Paper Details' section.
- Use the abstract template provided. Once completed, upload your abstract in a .doc or .docx format.
- List authors in the correct order, with the presenting author identified. Authors selected for oral presentation may be required to supply biographical information at a later date.
- Select the Meeting theme that best relates to your abstract.
- Indicate your preferred presentation type.
- Indicate whether you wish to be considered for a New Investigator Prize or travel bursary.
- Hit 'Preview and Submit'. You will be able to preview your abstract and make any changes if required.
- While on the preview window, hit 'Submit' to confirm your submission.
- Check your submission, which will be converted to a PDF file, to ensure the document has been uploaded correctly.
- Do not resubmit an abstract for any reason other than a notified submission error. If you do not receive a confirmation email with a receipt number confirming that your abstract was successfully uploaded, please contact Arinex, the conference organisers on:

Phone: +61 2 9265 0700

Email: ndlr@arinex.com.au

- The submitting author will be notified of the outcome of the review by 5 January 2018.

Abstract Review, Evaluation and Selection Process

Abstract Review

All submitted abstracts will go through a blind peer-review process carried out by an international Program Review Committee. Each abstract will be assessed by three reviewers.

Abstract Selection

The Program Review Committee makes the final selection of abstracts to be included in the NDLR Program. Only the submitting author will receive communication concerning the abstract and is responsible for informing all co-authors of the status of the abstract.

Authors whose abstracts have been accepted will receive additional guidance relating to their presentation from the Program Review Committee.